The Kallah Is About To Appear

I told you last week there will be a lot of revelations and there were .The forecast that I can foresee for this week is very bad and very difficult. Difficult for the whole world. The unimaginable will become reality IY"H. People will start thinking, start waking up from their stupor and start thinking. Things will happen in quick succession, one after another. People will be very surprised but of course most of the people of the world will still be asleep. But the more intelligent ones will be very afraid they will suddenly realize what a mess we are all in. But those that really and truly believe in Hashem amid their fears there will be joy, because they will see it all as a definite sign that soon this terribly long Golus is finally coming to an end and the Geula Sheleimah is about to begin.

We are now on the threshold of eternity, of all good and no bad, of spirituality above and beyond our wildest dreams, of closeness to the Source that we never thought possible and a feeling of good of contentment and of love that we never knew existed. We will be able to feel Hashem's presence and in a way see His presence but not with our eyes.

I can go on and on describing what it will be like after we achieve the Geula Be'ezras Hashem. But there are not enough adjectives in any language to describe it. And even if I combine all the languages in the world and all the adjectives in every language I cannot fully describe what we are going to feel. The goodness that we are going to feel. So Am Yisroel keep strong and don't be afraid. The Chupa is built the Chosson is waiting, the Misader Kiddushin is in place and the Kallah is about to appear.
