Soon We Will Be Coming To A Count Down

Mommy, I feel this week is going to be a spectacular week. I feel that there is going to be big happenings inside and outside of Eretz Yisroel. I feel that the world is going to shake but I am not sure if literally speaking or from devastating happenings. I feel that the population of the world is going to realize much stronger and much more widely accepted that we are at the end of the world as we know it up until now. I believe that in Eretz Yisroel many Jews will become extremely confused and might even go over to the side of the Goyim spiritually. On the other hand many Jews will obviously come back very strong, I am not only talking about Baalai Teshuva but about the Frum Jews themselves that they will start realizing how far away from Truth they have become and will try very hard to find a way back even at great self-sacrifice.

Soon we will be coming to a count down and I just want to remind Am Yisroel that the only life boat that we can save ourselves with is total trust, belief and love of Hashem more than any person or thing that exists in the world. We love only Hashem. We trust only Hashem, we are His people His children, nothing else exists for us on that level. We have wives, we have husbands, and we have children who we love. We have friends who we love but no one or nothing can be a greater love or greater trust than we have towards Hakodosh Boruch Hu. He is our everything, our Hakol Yachol and we are completely His. Ready yourself Am Yisroel, take away the Gashmius which draws us away from the Truth. Meditate on your total love and trust of Hakodosh Boruch Hu no matter what happens no matter what danger we see, only our connection to the Source can bring us safely to the Geula Sheleimah to the Bais Hamikdosh and to eternity.
